I have your letter of 6 October which you were so thoughtful to send me.

It was certainly good to hear from you again, and I sincerely appreciate your writing to me as you did. I might add that I too have enjoyed our meetings and hope that we will have an opportunity to get together before very long.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Mr. Dulles,

I have heard that you have retired from the responsible position you have held for many years.

On this occasion I should like to send you my best wishes now you have entered a new and probably quieter phase of your life, and to say how much I appreciated the meetings I had the pleasure to have with you in the past. I am wondering what your plans might be for the future - whatever you intend to do, my kindest thoughts and good wishes are with you. I hope we shall see each other again some time, to which I am looking forward very much indeed.

With kindest personal regards, I am,
